Remarks	I. Pursuant to Article 10 of the University Regulations, persons who are unable to complete the matriculation procedures because of compulsory military service, pregnancy, childbirth, needing to care for young children under the age of 3, or other special circumstances, must submit a written application for deferment of admission, together with the relevant supporting documents, within the deadline for matriculation registration; such persons will not be required to pay any university fees. II. The period for which deferment of admission may be retained is limited to one year, except in the case of men performing compulsory military service, in which case it is limited to the statutory period of military service. In the case of women who need to care for young children under the age of 3, it is limited to a maximum of three years. III. Students who have transferred to the university may not apply for deferment of admission. IV. When submitting your application, please provide a stamped, self-addressed envelope to facilitate the mailing of the Deferment of Admission Certificate, if approval is granted.
